

'Auhea wale ana 'oe, ē ka pua
Ē Vikolia Ka'iulani
Mahalo aku wau i kou nani
Ka lehua poepoe i ka nahele

Listen to me, o blossom
O Victoria Ka'iulani
I admire the beauty of
The blossoming lehua of the forest

Ke noho maila i Pana'ewa
I ka uka onaona i ke 'ala
Ke 'ala ka pua o ka mokihana
I wili 'ia mai me ka maile

Dwelling there in Pana'ewa
That upland imbued with fragrance
The mokihana blossom is sweet
When entwined with the maile

Onaona o ka lā o ke kau
Lipolipo i ka ua Tuahine
Ha'ina ka inoa o ku'u lani
'O Ka'iulani, nō he inoa

Fragrant in the summer's sun
Kept green by the Tuahine rain
This is a song for my princess
For Ka'iulani, indeed a name-song

He inoa no kaikamahine ali'i
'O Vikolia Ka'iulani
